G.K. Chesterton, in full Gilbert Keith Chesterton, born on May 29, 1874, London, England died June 14, 1936, Beaconsfield Buckinghamshire, English critic and author of verse, essays, novels, and short stories, known also for his exuberant personality and rotund figure. Throughout his life, G.K. Chesterton penned nearly a thousand poems that described his reaction to people and events. Most of Chesterton's literary output was nonfiction, including thousands of columns for various periodicals, but today he is best remembered for his fictional work.
